FRIDAY, AUGURT 2, 1889. POLITICAL JUDGES!

The following extract from the Charleston Courier, a Van Buren paper, we make for the purpose of showing to our readers in what light political Judges are I toked up in at the South, and which we believe expresses the time state of correct public sentiment throughout the country

We commend its perusal to the people of Maine we especially urge deconsideration upon the citizens of Penobscot county; and the city of Bangor We have in our midst, a Judge who descends from the high and importful, and independent station which his office imperious ly demands, to "mingle in the coarse struggles of the political ring," and publishes his own shame by the prominence to which he aspires in political caucuses and committee meetings

A minimuvering, intrigue ng, shuffing politi cal Judge may indeed be styled, with the ut. most propriety a "ineral monster," who violates A was adding a gli orgration can ha livery y'n and debises his character and his office to the low est dregs of human deprayity. The descent of a-Judge from the dignity due the ermine to the stongh of political atruggles is too painful a pic titre to contemplate in the imagination, and get we have the horrid spectacle living and breathing among us day by day

If the counsels and warnings of opponents will not bring the deep blush of sliame, and su ! sble amendment of conduct to the Judge of our Police Court, we recommend to him to read the soman Lieutenant Edwin W. Mo re has reopinions of his political friends, and to square signed his commission in the United States Nahis constrict to the line of duty which they point vy doubtless in consequence of having entered out. This Judge ought to know, that while the Texan service. Six delars per di mis the

In our State the Constitution wisely removes the Judge from the biasses and passions of the day, by ma king his office one for life or good behavior, and of their return Do make yourselves at home from a similar jealousy, it excludes the clergy The Judge de from all share in legislation grades the bench and destroys the force of his au thority, who plays the pastizan The clergyman Lify their interference. The stern law of probibition, of the constitution, in the one case, and public opinion in the other, has in our State giv on sanctity to our courts of justice and reverence to our clergy It tells of a downward tendency in public morals, when the judge and the cler gyman, elmost equally ministers in holy things can mingle in the coarse struggles of the political ring, and not shock the public mind

But we inust not raise expectations which, for all concerned, had better be taken in delighted and thrilling surprise.

VALUABUE CENTIFICATES. EVAN'S CAMOMILE AND APERIENT PILLS. THE DIFFERENCE.

TT cannot be denied that whitst many medicines which are recommended to the public, have not even the negative merit of narmlessness, there are others which it would be great mustice indeed, and Lègislature concurring, that the Constitution of suicidal prejudice to involve unised, in a common this State be amended by striking cut the fourth condemnation. And when a medicine comes ensection of the sixth article thereof, and substituting dorsed with all the great names that have adounced the annals of the medical profession, and warranted by the seal and signature of long and uniform sucwho may be hereafter appointed, shall from and af- cess, its proprietor makes no unreasonable demand in abdomen, is frequent cause tor the first day of March, in the year eighteen hun- upon the public confidence, when he claims for it a

The Camomile Preparation by Dr. Wm. Evans is undeniably entitled to this enviable distinction, for whilst no medical authority in existence condemns it, every medical practitioner that is acquainted with it, freely acknowledgevite pro-comment virtues and that the latter should do so in apposition to their personal interests, must be attributed either to their ander and love of truth, or to: their unwillingness to fly in the face of all observation, and the testimoy of thousands.

Dr. W. Evans does not pretend that his Camomile Tonic Pills will cure all diseases. He trankly and conscientiously admits that they will not. He tays no claim to the discovery of the "Philosopher" Sione," and wishes nobody to believe that he selfs the "Elixir of Life," but he does say, and he does believe, and he can prove, that in debility and im paired constitution; in Nervous diseases of all kinds; in weakness of the digestive organs, in incipient consumptions, whether of the lungs of the liver; in the dreadful debility occasioned by the use of purgatives; in palay, the unalism, (more especially) in the sickness incident to mothers, and to fe malex of relaxed perves; in every case of delirium tremens, or that disease which is brought on by intemperance; in the wretchest horrors of hardy and mind which accrue from occasional inebrity; loss of appenite, langor, melancholy, pains in the head, limbs, or side; in corrupt sallow, and uncomely complexion, caused by the bad state of the flures. in all these cares, and in others mentioned in the bills of directions given with his medicines, HE riogs SAY, that the Communic Topic Pills, interchanged occasionally with his Aperient Family Pills, (the heat known) which are sold with them, will effect immediate relief; and if used but for a fair period of trial a perfect cure. This much is placed beyond a doubt by daily testimonies which would be given on oath, and for this much Dr. W Evans can conscientiously request confidence. He therefore need only add that kis Camomile Tonic Pills, tweether with his extellent Family Aperient Pills, can be obtained wholesale or retail, at No. 7, Division street near Chadiam of inre, N. York, and his airthurized agents in town and country.

Other and more cusclinive denien hatimis of the efficacy of Dr. Evans' Camomile Preparation and Aperiest Medicines, are submitted by the following important and extraordinary cores effected by their highly stadicinal qualities; all of which may be seen at Dr. Wm. Evans' "ledical Office, No. 7, Division street. One or two of these he herewith respecifully gives to a discriminating public.

They begleave to assure the American Public that said Indian Pill are a purgative so justly balanced, that they may be taken at all times and under all cir cumstances with perfect safety, and no dose, however small, but will afford some rulief, and no quantity, however large, (if it be such as is required to open the bowels) can possibly it jure.

Assisting Nature should be our chief study, and for this parious, the Indian Purgative will be found the most effectual medicine ever offered to the public. Its power being always directed to the opening of those druins through which hature carries out all impurities from the body; it uffords precisely the amount of assistance she requires to enable her to cure every variety of disease. It being a vegetable preparation, and acting in harmony with our constitution, it is always the right medicine to be udministered. One great advantage, possessed by the Indian Pills over every other medicine is, that as they core disease matural principles and wift all complaints, they are always the right hedicine W-be administered, and, consequently, can acver be taken simproperly; therefore, no time should be lost in listening to contradictory advice; the only inquiry should be, is the person sick? if so, the scoper a few dosos of the Indian Pills are administered, the scoper will the patient be restored to benith and usefulness.

This sesertion may startle the reader and appear to him This sesertion may startle the reader and appear to him absurd and ridiculous, yet nevertheless it is true. What is disease? When properly considered it is only an effort of nature to expel from the body some offending cause. We are so constituted that there is a constant tendency in natured sexpel or throw off whatsoever is singuigue, to health. This is done by urine, stool, swent, expectorahealth. This is done by urine, stool, sweat, expectora-tion, vomit, dec. These are the sewers of the light that which all the necless and decayed matter is carried off: and so long as they are kept open, so long will the body continue in health. But when from eating improper food or other cause, the bowels become costive, or sudden tranor other cause, the bowels become costive, or sudden transitions from heat to colly the porce of the skin become closed, or any of the other drains became distincted, evil consequences are sure to follow. The foul matter which should escape by those outlets instead of passing off as nature intended, is retained in the body, and either putrifies in the storach, or is taken up by the absorbent vescels and added to the circulation. This impure matter than the storach of the system in the blood is disease, in a function of the system in the blood is disease. tent and added to the circulation. This impure matter floating about the system, is the blood is discasse in a futent form. It sometimes appears hamless for a while, but nature always on the alert soon discovers the intruders and immediately commences a struggle for their expulsion It will be observed that in order to accomplish this undertaking the always discarts. It will be observed that in order to accomplish this undertaking she always directs her efforts to remove offending matters (disease.) It is not wonderful that under such circumstances the hody should sink state the conflict. Assisting nature, should be our chief study and for this purpose no medicine will be found so effectual as the Indian Purgative Pills, as their effects extend to every one of the natural drains. Whilst under its influence the body will be accomplished the effectual arrasication. The blood natural drains. Whilst under its influence the body will be kept in a gentle but effectual prespiration. The blood will throw off the grosser particles of its impropriety into the bowels from which it will be expelled by the pargative quality of the Rills. And under every circumstance, if properly persewered with, it is impossible but that every disease must yield to their powerful influence.
